8- Read the following, then answer the questions:

Help is not always free. In fact, sellers help buyers, drivers help travellers and doctors help sick people. They all get money for their services to live on. When you grow up you too will need a job to live. Life in every corner of the world rests on work and money. Work wants knowledge and skill. Knowledge and skill take time. So, the sooner you start, the better you are . Work also wants health. So, always take care of yourself. Often, help is a mark of a good heart. A young man with a good heart will leave his place on a bus to an old man or woman. A seller who sells at lower prices is not different from a driver who cares for the lives on the road .

A-Answer the following questions:
